VERSE 1

G

Throw off the things that I thought were important

Em

The kingdoms I've built in my name

C

Too heavy a burden, I'm just one person

D

Crushed beneath this weight

VERSE 2

G

Laying my guns down, no need to fight now

Em

For hills that I've been dying on

C

Forgetting my arguments, ditching the evidence

C

You have what I need to be free

CHORUS

C

I will run run run to you

Em

C

All that I ever need is you

Am

C

I'm finished with fighting I have decided

D

G Em

I'll run to you

VERSE 3

G

What if surrender was only forgiveness

Em

For all of the wrong that I've done

C

The forfeit of prejudice, toppling monuments

C

That never amounted to anything

BRIDGE

D

Em

G

C

The arc of the universe bends toward Your justice and truth

D

Em

G

C

Grace is the gravity—pulls me in close like the moon

D

Em

G

C

The stars in the sky relay echoes of echoes of you
