VERSE 1

1

Throw off the things that I thought were important

6m

The kingdoms I've built in my name

4

Too heavy a burden, I'm just one person

5

Crushed beneath this weight

1

Laying my guns down, no need to fight now

6m

For hills that I've been dying on

4

Forgetting my arguments, ditching the evidence

5

4

You have what I need to be free

CHORUS

6m

4

I will run run run to you

6m

4

All that I ever need is you

2m

4

5

I'm finished with fighting I have decided

I'll run to you

VERSE 3

What if surrender was only forgiveness

For all of the wrong that I've done

The forfeit of prejudice, toppling monuments

That never amounted to anything

BRIDGE

5 - 6m - 1 - 4

The arc of the universe bends toward Your justice and truth
Grace is the gravity—pulls me in close like the moon
The stars in the sky relay echoes of echoes of you
If all of creation is chasing then I will chase too (X2)

BRIDGE 2

The whole of my spirit bends toward your justice and truth
The weight of your mercy pulls me in close like a moon
The beat of my pulse relays echoes of echoes of you
Forget about all I once loved, I will only chase you
