VERSE 1

I wish it were easy but love is hard
You'll never know commitment with lies in your heart
All the rules we've carried are so unnecessary
Cause there's no baggage to bury If we're at the start

CHORUS

Let's just make it so brand new, so brand new
Leave the dust in our rear view, oooo!
High beams on just me and you, me and you
Cause we make it so brand new
Let's just make it so brand new, so brand new
Watch us make a grand debut, oooo!
Flashing lights on me and you, me and you
Cause we make it so brand new.

God, you're a real one, blood carries deep
Where I've been scared of my secrets, you're clarity
The cross that You carried was so necessary
And there's no baggage to bury, love has made me free

BRIDGE

Let's make our getaway, getaway
Cause we're just runaways, runaways
This is the great escape
Into something so brand new
So brand new
